Behaviour of Marshals in the flights

*24. SHRI P. PRABHAKARREDDY:

SHRI KARNENDU BHATTACHARJEE:

Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item

"Marshals, the new terror in the Indian Skies", which appeared in the Hindustan Times dated 23rd June, 2002;

(b) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto; and

(c) the steps proposed to be taken to control and contain the obnoxious activities of the commandos so as to ensure smooth journey for the bonafide passengers?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI SYED SHAHNAWAZ HUSSAIN): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. The News item under the caption "Marshals— the New Terror in Indian Skies", which appeared in the Hindustan Times dated 23.6.2002, mentioned various incidents of alleged misconduct by Sky Marshals. The facts regarding the reported incidents are indicated below.

There has been no incident of a commando ducking the mandatory frisking. National Security Guard (NSG), from where Sky Marshals are drawn, enquired into the complaint and reported that there had been an instance of some misunderstanding between a Sky Marshal and the Airline's ground staff, which had been sorted out with the intervention of a Senior Security Manager and the established procedure for checking Sky Marshals was completed. The whole incident delayed the Alliance Air flight CD 7211 on 6.2.2002 by 30 minutes.

As regards the complaint of a Sky Marshal turning up drunk for duty on Alliance Air flight CD 7541 on 9.2.2002, NSG has informed that the matter has been enquired into and on being found guilty the Sky Marshal had been repatriated out of NSG.

The reported case of rape by Sky Marshals in November, 2000 was investigated by NSG and it has been found that it was not a case of rape. The four Sky Marshals were, however, punished and repatriated out of NSG immediately for improper conduct.

NSG had ordered a high level inquiry into the complaint of obscene behaviour on May 26,2002 by a Sky Marshal in front of an Air Hostess on Alliance Air flight CD 7241. Even though the facts could not be established conclusively, a decision has been taken to repatriate the Sky Marshal out of NSG.

The incidents that were reported in the News item of The Hindustan Times dated 23. 6. 2002 have been investigated by NSG and prompt punishment meted out to the Sky Marshals wherever misconduct has been established. NSG being an elite commando force of the country, created under the Ministry of Home Affairs, with its own in - built system of ensuring discipline and good conduct does not retain a commando on its strength when any complaint against him is received, if it is seen that there is even a shadow of doubt regarding his conduct.

Mutual consultations are held between Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS), NSG and the Airlines on an on-going basis and appropriate action is taken jointly to pre-empt such incidents.
